

Harbor Country Day School

Embracing the extraordinary in every child.™

Part-Time School Social Worker

Harbor Country Day School is an independent co-educational school for children in Pre-K2 through Eighth Grade. It is located on a beautiful 14-acre campus along the North Shore of Long Island. Founded in 1958 by a group of caring parents, the main campus building is a majestic 1910 estate home, Tulip Knoll, which creates a family-centric environment where children feel safe, connected, and known. At Harbor, faculty and staff contribute as essential members of this closely-knit academic community focused on the School's mission to "Cherish childhood, cultivate wonder, and inspire confident learners and leaders." Our faculty and staff share educational values and are singularly focused on creating a unique and comprehensive educational experience for students. Harbor employees are offered competitive independent school salaries, benefits packages, and opportunities to grow professionally.

Harbor Country Day School is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, citizenship, color, religion, age, gender, national origin, marital status, veteran's status, status as a qualified individual with a disability, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law.

Harbor Country Day School is currently seeking a part-time licensed social worker to work with our PreK through 8th-grade school community.

The responsibilities of this position include:

- Providing individual counseling to children
- Providing group counseling and social skills/play therapy
- Collaboration and consultation with individual parents and parent groups

Harbor Country Day School

Embracing the extraordinary in every child.™

- Developing and planning individualized interventions and evidence-based treatment
- Referral to, and collaboration with, outside providers
- Collaborating with school faculty, staff, and administrators to implement strategies to promote student learning and social development
- Are on-call to provide support to community members and/or crisis management in the event of a need that arises in a different division or during a local, national, or international crisis that impacts the community.

The ideal candidate will:

- Be passionate about working with children and families
- Possess excellent oral and written communication skills
- Understand the high level of confidentiality associated with the position
- Have excellent time management and organizational skills
- Be a licensed LCSW, LMFT, or a school psychologist

Interested candidates are asked to submit a cover letter, a resume, a written statement detailing their philosophy and approach to their work, and a listing of professional references. All application materials should be submitted electronically to Lynette Mutschler, Assistant to Head of School at: lmutschler@hcdsny.org.